

INDIVIDUALS AND NAHRO

Connection to NAHRO Gives You Expert Information, Education and Assistance to Prepare for the Challenges Ahead

Under NAHRO's new dues structure, membership is available to organizations—housing authorities, public agencies, for-profits, and non-profits involved in assisted housing or community revitalization. If your organization is a member of NAHRO, it is entitled to designate Associates who will benefit from the connection to NAHRO and its products and services. Please use/request an Associate application.

Allied Individual membership is available for $25 a year to the few individuals who are not connected to an organization that is eligible for organizational membership. They include those who are academics, students, unemployed, retired, those employed by the military, HUD, or international persons. If you are self-employed, you must join as a for-profit company—see applications under affiliate agencies.

Allied Individual members are recognized with a member card, certificate and pin. They have full access to the NAHRO Web site including all of the special member services, and we expect to add more. They can read the NAHRO Monitor online, even be notified when it is available. And, if they choose, they may purchase subscriptions to the NAHRO Monitor for $20 per year and/or the Journal of Housing and Community Development (JOHCD) for $25 per year.
