

INDIVIDUALS AND NAHRO

Connection to NAHRO Gives You Expert Information, Education and Assistance to Prepare for the Challenges Ahead

If your agency is a member of NAHRO, it is entitled to designate Associates who will benefit from the connection to NAHRO and its products and services. If your agency is not a member, ask for an agency application.

Associates are recognized with a member card, certificate and pin. They have full access to the NAHRO Web site including all of the special new services. They can read the NAHRO Monitor online, even be notified when it is available. And, if they choose, they may purchase subscriptions to the NAHRO Monitor for $20 or the Journal of Housing and Community Development (JOHCD) for $25 per year.

Check with your agency or NAHRO to see if there are Associate spots still available. Then you could be an Associate for no cost. If all of your agency's allotment has been filled, you may pay the additional $25 Associate fee to join.
