

Regional Report to the Board of Governors

October, 2019

Regional Conferences

Mountain Plains NAHRO is just finalizing the date and location of its 2020 regional conference. The conference will be hosted by Utah NAHRO and will take place in Park City sometime the week of June 15, 2020.

Professional Development

Nothing to report.

Membership Growth and Retention

Mountain Plains NAHRO's work efforts for the next three to five years will revolve around creating an invigorated advocacy program; rethinking the annual conference; and focusing on peer to peer network connections. Working committees have been formed and will be reporting progress and suggested strategies at the MPNAHRO Board meeting at the San Antonio Conference.

Housing America Activities

Three winners from the Mountain Plains region have been submitted to NAHRO to compete in the national Poster Contest competition.

Scholarships and Awards Programs

Nothing to report.

Advocacy

MPRC was active in promoting participation in the NAHRO Advocacy letter writing campaign in August with close to 400 letters generated.
