Best Practices for Radon Testing and Mitigation in Multi-unit Housing

Radon exposure is responsible for an estimated 20,000 deaths annually from lung cancer in the U.S. In this session, presenters will discuss the basic science of radon and summarize best practices and costs for radon testing and mitigation in multi-unit housing. Information will also be provided on hiring radon professionals.

Moderator:
Peter J. Ashley, DrPH, MPH
Director, Policy and Standards Division
HUD Office of Lead Hazard Control and Healthy Homes
Washington, DC

Presenters:
Kyle Hoylman
Managing Partner, Protect Environmental
Chair, Executive Stakeholder Committee, American Association of Radon Scientists and Technologists (AARST)
Louisville, KY

Jane Malone
National Policy Director
American Association of Radon Scientists and Technologists (AARST)
Kennedyville, MD

Carolina Gomez
Director, Integrated Facility Services and Safety
Home Forward
Portland, OR